LET'S FEEL THE COMFORT!

“ In playgrounds, in which kiddies play and roam, Rubber guarantees they are secure at home, soft landing for each bounce and slide, where laughter and joy all the time are living.

In playgrounds, in which kiddies play and roam, Rubber guarantees they are secure at home, soft landing for each bounce and slide, where laughter and joy all the time are living.

In hospitals, where recuperation's the goal, Rubber's a mother or father in this noble recreation, absorbing shocks, lowering pressure, A silent hero in the midst of pain.

So allow us to have a good time this humble floor, A resilient ally we can not pass, In houses and areas, big and small, Rubber flooring, you conquer all.

Oh, rubber flooring, along with your quiet grace, you're making the world a higher place, A surface that gives consolation and care, In every step, you are always there.
